Christian Hammond, Associate

Chris Hammond's practice is focused on all areas of litigation including commercial litigation, insurance defense, arbitrations, and contract disputes. Chris is particularly interested in employment law, immigration law, and appeals. His experience in employment matters ranges from advising clients on appropriate employment procedures and policies to minimize exposure to liability to representing clients in employment litigation matters including discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, and wage disputes. Additionally, Chris has participated in numerous appeals.

Prior to joining Dufford & Brown in 2003, Chris served as a law clerk to Justice Nathan "Ben" Coats of the Colorado Supreme Court. This clerkship has provided him with invaluable experience and skills which he now incorporates into his practice to benefit Dufford & Brown's clients.
